
ASCS TODAY

By Tom Conrad

ASCS Reminds Tobacco Carryover Provisions Beginning with the 1979 crops, marketing agents will no longer be permitted to store producer carryover tobacco under the burley and flue-cured tobacco programs.

The previous carryover provision may have stimulated excess tobacco production and could have had some effect on the price support programs. ASCS changed the tobacco programs to discourage farmers from overproducing.

Farmers who agree not to harvest the four lower leaves can plant up to 110 percent of their effective flue-cured allotments and still receive price support. Producers are required to report tobacco on hand at the end of the marketing season, and dealers and buyers must submit supplemental reports of tobacco acquired by them and not included in their seasonal reports.

May 1 is the last day to file a request for lease and transfer of flue-cured farm marketing quotas, unless the late filing is beyond the producer's control. Burley tobacco growers in general will not be allowed to transfer a marketing quota both to and from a farm in the same year.

Further details are availab le at the ASCS office.

Consider Set-Aside Benefits, Farmers Advised - As the wheat and feed grain signup period enters the final month, I advise farmers to seriously consider program benefits.

The set-aside enables all producers to work together to maintain or improve crop prices by reducing production. At the same time, it protects them from both natural and economic disasters. A farmer needs money to operate. If he gets loans through our program, it will give him time to hold for a better market.

Deficiency payments act as insurance to keep farmers in business if prices stay below acceptable levels. Disaster coverage provides protection against crop loss.

The set-aside program permits a farmer to grow as many acres of any crop, other than tobacco, that he wants, as long as he stays within his farm's normal crop acreage (NCA).

Farmers should not expect to produce corn and wheat for a reserve program. They need to use the set-aside and diversion programs to begin balancing supply with demand so that the market will pay a profitable price.

Farm price improvement will depend greatly on the willingness of farmers to participate in the set-aside program. A bumper crop as in 1978 can drop farm prices to disastrous levels.

I encourage farmers to consider the program in relation to their farm operations, and to visit the ASCS office at their earliest convenience.

Commodity Loans Help Stabilize Farm Income - For over 40 years the ASCS has provided commodity loans through farm programs to producers. These loans have sometimes meant the difference between a farmer going broke or staying in business.

Authorized by the Commodity Credit Corporation in October 1933, the loans give producers an opportunity to obtain cash and hold their crops for later sale. By holding a crop, producers minimize market gluts, extreme price swings and transportation bottlenecks by spreading commodity markets over the entire year.

Grain under loan is stored on farms and in commercial warehouses. The quality and quantity of the crops must be maintained. Farm-stored grain is the responsibility of the producer and should be inspected regularly to keep it in good condition.

For more information on commodity loans, contact the ASCS office.

Pre-Measurement Important - Farm program participants who want to be sure about their crop acreages, set-aside and diverted acres, should request pre-measurement service. The producer service is offered to assure farmers that they are in compliance with the 1979 feed grain and wheat set-aside program.

We will measure, stake and reference fields prior to planting. To be certain of full compliance, farmers must plant within the stakes that are placed when the land is measured. After planting, farmers are required to report their crop, set-aside and other program acreage to ASCS.

Pre-measurement is very important as it guarantees field sizes and helps farmers plan which fields to plant and which to set-aside.

This service is especially useful before planting marketing quota crops such as flue-cured and fire-cured tobacco. Flue-cured tobacco producers will not have the opportunity to adjust their crop acreage to gain program compliance, even in counties using aerial observation.

Farmers are encouraged to request pre-measurement and avoid loss of program benefits because of failure to comply.

HEALTH WARNING

Don't Take Darvon With Alcohol Or Tranquilizers

About one to two thousand deaths a year are associated with propoxyphene, a popular pain killer sold as Darvon and under other names, according to the Food and Drug Administration (FDA).

FDA advises: discuss Darvon with your doctor.

FDA advises people taking this prescription drug not to take it with alcohol, tranquilizers or sedatives.

Some accidental deaths have occurred when propoxyphene was taken in conjunction with these substances by people who did not understand the dangers.

FDA also warns that, when taken for extended periods of time, propoxyphene can produce physical or psychological dependence.

People who are taking propoxyphene should discuss any questions with their doctors.

The morning service was conducted in the usual manner at 11 a.m. Special music was rendered by the Galilee Church Senior Choir. The Rev. Harrison Kelso delivered the morning sermon. The pastor of the church conducted the devotions and extended welcome to all home comers, members, visitors and friends. The afternoon service began at 3 p.m. with the Rev. S. C. Terry and the Free Spring Church of near Rustburg as special guest leading the devotions. The welcome and special greetings were given by Mr. R. McKinley Tanner. The history of the church was ready by Mrs. Ida Elliott, a solo was rendered by Mrs. Elizabeth Hall of Philadelphia, Pa. The centennial sermon was delivered by the Rev. S. C. Terry. The offering was lifted by deacons Fleshman Jones and Smith. A special selection was given by a chorus from Washington, D. C. They also sang a special number for Rev. Kelso at the morning service. Presentations were made to the church from the following auxiliaries: Sunday School, Junior Choir, Senior Choir, Willing Workers Club, Usher Board, Youth Club, Mens Club, the Centennial Committee and personnel. The pastor and church were very happy and grateful to have the pastor, officers and a large number of members of the Spout Spring Baptist Church to fellowship at both services and eat dinner. The pastor gave some very inspiring remarks. Miss Georgia Fleshman, chairman of the planning committee thanked everyone for the total cooperation in making the celebration a spiritual and financial success.

Don't forget to attend the special meeting of the local assembly on Wednesday evening after the fourth Sunday in this month at 7:30. A talent program will be presented. Refreshments will be served in a covered dish. Please come and bring a friend.

Raiderettes Roll

The Raiderette softball team notched victories number three and four against no losses by defeating Rustburg 9 to 3 and Altavista 14 to 1 in games played last week.

Good pitching, strong hitting and a solid defense (they did not commit an error in the Rustburg game) are the key to the sucess of the Appomattox girls.

When asked about her sluggers, Coach Mary Tolley said, "I'S hard to say. All of the girls are contributing."

However, Johnna Belter had five hits in seven at bats last week, Susan Handy went four for eight and several girls had three hits. In addition Belter had four stolen bases, two RBI and was the winning pitcher in the Rustburg game.

In all the Raiderettes pounded opposing pitchers for 24 hits during the week.

Fans should note that the game with Amherst on Wednesday, April 18 will be played at 3:00 p.m.
